

Deep inside : a collection of surfing stories / by John McLean

Description

This collection of short stories covers many aspects of surfing--the camaraderie of the line-up, surf trips to exotic places, beach life, localism, pollution, soul surfing, after surf activities and other adventures. Set in different parts of the world, these fictional stories are funny, reflective, topical and mind-expanding. Just what is needed for filling in those idle hours when the ocean goes flat.