

Dogtown : the legend of the z-boys / original stories and selected images by C. R. Stecyk III ; picture archive discoveries by Glen E. Friedman

Description

As far as true folklore is concerned, I can hardly think of any story that is as important or influential to youth in the late 20th century as that of the DogTown skateboarders. Their stories and lifestyle were first presented, single-handedly, to the world through one mans writing and pictures. This documentarian /artists name is C.R. Stecyk III, a.k.a. John Smyth, a.k.a. Carlos Izan.
