

MP : the life of Michael Peterson : the incredible untold story of Australian surfings cult hero / by Sean Doherty

Description

For three years Michael Peterson was the best surfer in the world, hands down. An undiagnosed schizophrenic, Michael despised the fame his surfing powers attracted, and he retreated into a world of hard drugs, fast cars and shadows. For 20 years Michael Petersons exploits in and out of the water have existed only as a series of mythological tales, passed down by the surfing tribe. Until now.
