

The complete history of surfing : from water to snow / by Nat Young, Craig McGregor, Rod Holmes

Description

This book is the result of a lifetime involvement with surfing and a deep interest in its history. Nat has had discussions with the greats of the sport, from Duke Kahanamoku to contemporary stars like Kelly Slater, Mick Fanning and Layne Beachley. He tells for the first time the real story behind the remarkable development of surfing from the ancient Hawaiians to California in the 1940s and right up until today.
