

Visions of the breaking wave / edited and written by Nick Carroll

Description

A collection of the work of some of the world's finest surf and nature photographers, who've strived to capture the fleeting moments of the ocean wave's progress from swell to sizzling foam. Photographs from coasts as far apart as West Australia and California, Indonesia and Tahiti, Africa and Hawaii highlighted by some of history's most reflective and penetrating observations on the subject of waves and sea.
