

"Purple People Eater" Longboard

Date

1961

Primary Maker

Hap Jacobs

Medium

Foam

Description

Originally owned by the renowned surfer Bob Cooper, who had it specially crafted by Hap Jacobs, Cooper affectionately named it the "Purple People Eater".

Masterfully shaped by the legendary Hap Jacobs, this board carries the imprint of his craftsmanship and expertise. This surfboard is a classic longboard crafted from foam and retains its original fin, going back to an era when surfboards were elegantly simplistic yet highly functional.

