

Split Color Grey and White Board with Hurley Logo

Primary Maker

Chris Schlickemeyer

Description

This board has a split color deck, with one side gray and one side white, divided by a black stringer. The white side has an additional orange stringer that begins partway down the board. It belonged to Daize Shane, who borrowed this board from Josh Baxter and won her first world championship on it.

