

Contest T-shirt from Jim and Marisa's Surfing Pure Experience

Description

T-shirts from a series of contests put on by Jim Miller in Manhattan Beach. Jim was a LA County lifeguard and a really good surfer. His contests were local in nature and always fun. There were a few contests where the surfers had to surf whatever board they were assigned and they were attended by some of the best South Bay surfers.

Trophies were plaques made with some of the contestant photos. Jim was married to Marisa Miller who was on of the Sports Illustrated swimsuit models. Jim passed away at an early age under tragic circumstances.

~ Darryl Dickie