

Art of Surfing 2006 Calendar

Description

Unlike any other sport in the world, surfing has retained its soul and expression as an art form. Whether a surfer is styling on the nose of a longboard or busting air on a shortboard, the sport of surfing is all about self-expression. Surfing Artists International presents artwork that ranges from soft watercolor stylings to bold acrylic splashes by the world's most renowned surf artists.