Rolling Thunder (VHS)

Description

The time: 2040. The place: a deep cavern hidden in the parched Australian Outback. A small band of survivors cling wearily to what's left of a world shattered by environmental collapse. Uncle Robbie, now too old to join the nightly hunt, tells the children of the glorious time before the oceans died, when the land was green and he rode the mightiest of waves. Starring Ian Abercrombie as Uncle Robbie. Robbie Page as himself--exploring the world's most exotic locations in a search for perfect waves: secret islands of Indonesia, Australia's Northwest coast, remote points of Baja California, South Africa & Hawaii. Featuring Tom Carroll, Tom Curren and Shaun Tomson, Hawaiian waterman Derek Ho, and Californians Richard Schmidt, Herbie Fletcher and Christian Fletcher.
