

Surfing For Life: Still Stoked and Surfing in their 70's, 80's and 90's! (VHS)

Description

"Why are we still doing it?" asks 93-year old surfer John "Doc" Ball. His answer and the stories of other grand elders of surfing are captured in one of the most inspiring films ever produced on the sport. Surfing For Life profiles some of the greatest legends in surfing history, including Woody Brown, Rabbit Kekai, John Kelly and Eve Fletcher. Through compelling portraits and extraordinary archival footage, a powerful story emerges of fascinating lives fully-lived, a story that defies the modern myths about aging. Also featuring LeRoy Grannis, Fred Van Dyke, Peter Cole, Shay Bintliff, M.D., and Anona Napoleon Narrated by Beau Bridges