

Burning the Map (DVD)

Description

Timmy Turner has just graduated high school and his parents have his future all mapped out for him. caught between his past as a free traveling surfing are a future taking over his parents restaurant the sugar shack, timmy goes back to indonesia to have one last slice of freedom where he has friends unlike those in his hometown of huntington beach CA. Travel along with timmy and his friends as they play in the perfect barrels along exotic island shores and get to know the indo island teenagers and the feline foreign travelers he meets along the way.