

Surfrider: The Sport of Kings record

Description

...Music, too, can prove as challenging and thrilling or as plaintive and controlled as surfriding. From the incomparable Surfrider Hotel with its cool lanais overlooking Waikiki Beach where Hawaii's ancient Kings and Queens rode their 16-foot Koa boards to shore on the King's Surf, come the recorded strains of ancient and modern rhythms, blended into an enchantment comparable to the surfing just across the golden beach, as only Pua Almeida and his Sunset Serenaders can capture them.
