

Hawaii A Go Go! record

Description

People like The Surfers. All native Hawaiians, here they bring you the songs of the islands with a "live" new sound. There's a freshness in their music, a vitality reminiscent of a group of friends enjoying a Luau or beach party. In fact, if The Surfers were to drop in on your next Luau, they'd probably end up singing for you just as they sing on this album...happily...freely...sometimes a little sadly...but always as if they were having the times of their lives...And they very probably would be! So, if you want some real, live, loving natives of "Paradise" to dream along with you, look no more! Simply sit back...Relax...Listen...And Enjoy!
